Grand Canyon Celebration of Art

September 18–November 28, 2010

Kolb Studio, Grand Canyon National Park, Arizona

The 2nd annual Grand Canyon Celebration of Art features thirty artists from around the country participating in a juried art competition and show on the South Rim of Grand Canyon National Park.

The proceeds will be dedicated toward the funding of an art venue on the South Rim that will preserve and showcase Grand Canyon National Park's collection of historic and contemporary paintings.

The Grand Canyon Celebration of Art is sponsored by the Grand Canyon Association and Grand Canyon National Park. Major support is provided by Xanterra Parks and Resorts and The Gumbo Foundation. Additional funding is provided by Arizona Public Service, the Cecily Maniaci family, the Zuckerman Family Foundation and Loven Contracting, Inc. Support for the purchase award is made possible by the Jack Dudley Memorial Fund.

For more details, visit www.grandcanyon.org, call (928) 638-2481, or e-mail hranney@grandcanyon.org.

In addition to art events, the nonprofit Grand Canyon Association publishes books, operates bookstores in the national park, leads educational trips and raises funds for many important projects at Grand Canyon. The Grand Canyon Association has been a proud park partner since 1932.
